

for Nursery, Reception, Year 1 and Year 2 in England and Wales

Books at Press resources (book titles in bold italics)	Cornerstones
Puddles and the Christmas Play Puddles purred as she lay by the warm, cosy fireplace. She loved winter evenings as long as she was snuggled up indoors! The next morning the ground was white with frost as Puddles ventures out to visit the church where everyone is practising for the Christmas play.	Nursery Projects Winter Wonderland
	Sparkle and Shine
	Reception Projects
	Year 1 Projects
	Year 2 Projects
Puddles Lends A Paw Puddles visits the village church and meets all the church helpers who are busy doing their different jobs around the church and the churchyard. Each has a different job to do to help make the church a very special place. The Reverend Freddie Fisher reads from the Bible and reminds everyone about how people should all help each other in any way that they can. As Puddles enjoys her adventure, she encounters all the different aspects and features of the church. Explore places of worship in your locality and the work that people do because of their faith.	Nursery Projects Build It Up Me and My Community
	Reception Projects
	Year 1 Projects
	Year 2 Projects
Puddles and the Happy Easter Day Puddles enjoys the spring time – flowers blossoming in the sunshine, newborn lambs, birds with their chicks, rabbits with their babies... Puddles and Arthur are very special friends. But in the week before Easter, Arthur goes missing. Worried and sad, each day, Puddles searches for Arthur. She has something important to tell him but he is nowhere to be seen. On Sunday, as everyone enjoys the Easter celebrations, Puddles has her own reason to celebrate... The Baby Birds Muhammad and his friends were glad to rest under the big wide leaves of the palm tree. They looked around at all they lovely plants they offered shade and food for the animals... Five baby birds fly from their nest for the very first time... Mummy bird watches over them but soon becomes anxious as she soon notices one of them in danger! As one of the friends captures a baby bird to take a closer look, Muhammad reminds everyone to take care and not harm anything in the wonderful natural world that Allah has created. Seven New Kittens Muhammad and his friends are in awe at the wonder of the seven newly born kittens which mother cat brings, one by one, to sit on his cloak. As mother cat feeds her kittens, Muhammad his reminded of the awe and wonder of the natural world.	Nursery Projects
	Reception Projects Signs of Spring
	Year 1 Projects Our Wonderful World (Geography Project)
	Year 2 Projects

The Tiny Ants The ants had a very busy day collecting food to take back to their nest. Suddenly they are in danger! A fire built close to them is making the air hotter and hotter and quickly they scurry in fear for their lives. Muhammad reminds everyone that all creatures no matter how big or small are all important and everyone should be careful not to harm them.	Nursery Projects
	Reception Projects Let's Explore Creep, Crawl and Wiggle
	Year 1 Projects Our Wonderful World (Geography Project)
	Year 2 Projects
A Wet and Windy Harvest for Puddles Puddles enjoys playing in the autumn leaves – tiny green ones, shiny and smooth, red ones with crinkly edges, yellow ones that shine in the sun and crispy brown ones that stick to her paw! She joins the congregation at the church for the Harvest service and can't resist climbing up the pile of autumn fruits and vegetables!	Nursery Projects Exploring Autumn
	Reception Projects Let's Explore
	Year 1 Projects Our Wonderful World (Geography Project)
	Year 2 Projects
Puddles and the St Francis Service All the villagers gather in the church for the St Francis Service. Many of them have brought their pets and animals from their farms... Mr Penyard with his pampered pig, Mr Campbell with his clumsy cow, and Miss Shearing with her shy sheep. As The Reverend Freddie Fisher gets ready to bless all the animals, the congregation begin to wonder where the two scruffy stray little kittens have come from. They are clearly in need of a home ... will they find one?	Nursery Projects
	Reception Projects Let's Explore Animal Safari
	Year 1 Projects Our Wonderful World (Geography Project)
	Year 2 Projects
Puddles and the Christening Splash! Puddles and her furry family attend the Christening service of Rosie and Ruby. Puddles and Arthur have struggled to think of a name for their little white kitten, but when she falls into the font which is filled with water, a name instantly springs to Freddie's mind! Discover how some Christian families welcome their baby into the church.	Nursery Projects Splash!
	Reception Projects
	Year 1 Projects
	Year 2 Projects
A Wedding Day Wish for Puddles Puddles and Freddie were best friends...but then Freddie meets Mary and Puddles suddenly feels left out and lonely. Everyone seems to have someone to love and Puddles wishes she had her own special friend. Then. As Sally and Mike plan their church wedding, Puddles meets Arthur... the most handsome cat she has ever seen!	Nursery Projects
	Reception Projects
	Year 1 Projects
	Year 2 Projects